Popular features

White label ticketing

Enhance your brand awareness and drive all ticket sales to your own website. From start to check-out, your customers never leave your website.

Facebook ticketing

Sell directly from Facebook.com by integrating the ticketZone Facebook app. Customers also have the ability to connect with Facebook and see which of their friends are attending your event.

iOS

Using Linea pro scanners, turn any iOS device into an incredibly convenient mobile box office or mobile point-of-sales system. This works great for running admissions or selling tickets on the go.

High volume ticketing

Thanks to cloud computing, ticketZone can quickly scale to handle up to 15,000 orders per second. This is the same tech that handles the largest festival in North America, right at your fingertips.

Popular features

Remarketing

Use data from your site and our network to follow your customers around 98% of the internet. Remarketing can be setup to run on Google and Facebook, and even as video pre-roll advertisements on Youtube.

Payment plans / Layaway ticketing

This unique feature is a great way to get people to commit to buying expensive tickets early (e. g. Purchase a $300 ticket with 6 easy monthly payments of $50).

Setup your own retail network

Want to set up your own retail network of physical ticket locations? In 10 minutes of training we can help you turn a retail partner into your own sales centre. This is a great way to add value to sponsorships by driving bodies into a retail location.

Get paid directly to your own bank account

Want to get paid every 24 hours? Get your own merchant account and we can do that for you. Available in the USA & Canada.

Popular features

Speed up your admissions with RFID

The first ticketing company to offer RFID tech as an admission option at no additional charge.

Assigned seating ticketing

Assigned seating works well for theatres, but also for nightclubs offering table reservations. Recently we've started using it to plan out exhibition booths and vendor areas at festivals and conferences as well.

Online box office

Run your own box office to get customers in the door quickly and securely. No need for custom hardware or software, just use any computer with an internet connection.

Mobile ticketing

We make mobile ticketing easy! Post your tickets on ticketZone and instantly optimize for mobile, iPhone & Android. All white label shopping carts also feature a "responsive design" with mobile in mind. With over 50% of online traffic coming from mobile platforms, you can rest assured that your customers have the friendliest buying experience possible.

Popular features

Get to know everything about your customers

Because we connect with Facebook for the majority of purchases, we can tell you everything you've ever wanted to know about your customers, including age, sex, ethnicity, where they are from, income, and even their other interests.

Fraud detection

Not only do we subscribe to the most powerful fraud prevention network on the planet, we decided to layer on a few extra features to keep your chargebacks to an absolute minimum.

Ticketing affiliate network

Want to expand your reach? Offer an optional commission per ticket to incentivize a massive network of ticketing affiliates. Is your event sold out? Don't worry, cross promote other events on our ticketing affiliate network and make some extra cash!

Sub-promoters

Empower your network of promoters and track their results to see who is hustling and who is just here for the free swag. You can also use sub-promoter links to track which online sales channels are worth reinvesting in.

"I've been working with ticketZone many years. Consistently, I was impressed with the vast knowledge of the system (all the staff members have this), and the extensive support they offer to their clients. Staff are available almost anytime during the day or evening (at the drop of a hat!). I would recommend it to anyone looking for a ticketing system, whether it be for a long-term basis or one event."
